ASSISTING CHURCH PLANTERS IN THE IVORY COAST

Dear Friends,

As I am writing this, I am in the middle of a missions conference. God has been so good to me, and I know that your prayers have had a part in that. These months have been filled with many phone calls, texts, and emails as well as cherished time with family and friends. Here is a brief update on what I have been doing these last three months.

Missions

Deputation these last three months has been primarily about preparation and planning. However, before I had any official meetings scheduled, I was still able to present my ministry and gain prayer support in churches throughout the Cleveland area. The preaching, the worship, and the spirit of these churches have encouraged my heart and strengthened my walk with the Lord.

I thank the Lord that my fall schedule has filled up quickly, and I finally “hit the road” at the beginning of September. Please pray for safety as I continue traveling throughout the northeast these next few months.

Ministry

In July, I was able to travel to California and spend time with family members that I haven't seen for several years. Several of my family members are struggling with serious health problems, and many of them do not know Christ as their personal Savior. Please pray with me for my family's health and salvation.

Since my schedule looks different now that I am no longer teaching, I have been finding ways to serve and show the love of Christ and share the gospel. Throughout the summer I spent some time with former students as they prepared to leave for college—a lot of walks, tacos, coffee, and conversation. Please pray for these students as they seek God's will for their futures. In July, I had the opportunity to teach in vacation Bible school at a church plant not too far from my church, and in August, I was able to help the new English teacher prepare for the school year. When I have been at my home church, I have continued to help in the Winning Side class, bus, nursery, and media ministry, and participate in Great Commission Night on Mondays. Please pray that I will continue to find ways to serve and share the gospel at home and as I travel.

Moving Forward

I have an exciting couple of months coming up, and I am looking forward to all that God has in store for me. There is nothing greater than serving the Lord. He is teaching me so much about faith and complete dependence on Him, and I wouldn't trade it for anything! Please continue to pray for God's provision, protection, and guidance as I continue this deputation adventure.

Also, my spring schedule is still wide open, so please pray that God will continue to connect me with pastors and churches where I can share what God is leading me to do and gain prayer and financial support.

As I mentioned at the beginning of my letter, I am in the middle of a missions conference, and I am honored to present alongside several missionaries that have served in their fields faithfully for over thirty years. I have heard them emphasize over and over the importance of prayer for them and their ministries. I have no doubt that the continued prayers of God's people have played a significant part in their faithful service for so many years. Your prayers make a difference!

Thank you for your continued prayers and support for me!

Because of Christ,

Kristina Premo

I got to see my Grandma after five years, and she turns 94 on October 1!

This is one of my former students who got to use her talents for the Lord to teach in Vacation Bible School.

What a privilege to be a part of a conference with these faithful missionaries!
